

CACM 2012 Law Seminar Registration

CCAMs earn 7 classroom CEUs for each successfully completed Law Seminar.

Annual attendance at a CACM Law Seminar is a great way to stay up-to-date on legal issues and earn 7 classroom CEUs. CCAMs are required to attend and pass the exam for a minimum of one Law Seminar for each recertification period — but, the more you attend, the more CEUs you'll earn.

Continuing Education Units/DRE

Credit: CCAMs seeking CEUs and students seeking DRE credit are required to attend at least 90% of the program and must pass the exam with a grade of 70% or better. Students who do not complete the exam will not receive credit – no exceptions. If these requirements are met, CCAMs will receive 7 classroom CEUs and, pending DRE approval, students seeking DRE credit will receive seven hours of Consumer Protection, DRE credit, California Department of Real Estate Sponsor #3012. Approval, if granted, does not constitute an endorsement of the views expressed by the course authors, sponsors, instructors or lecturers. Students seeking DRE credit should be prepared to show picture I.D. and provide CACM with a DRE license number. The appropriate form may be obtained at the CACM registration desk. The DRE has a course and instructor evaluation available on their website at www.dre.ca.gov.
